2,833 Bachelor's Degrees Awarded in 2005/06

In 2005/06, 2,833 undergraduates received bachelor's degrees from DePaul University. Bachelor's degrees were 52% of all degrees offered at DePaul. This is a five percent-point increase from 1999/00, when undergraduate degrees accounted for only 47% of all degrees awarded, after dropping from 52% the previous year.

Half of these graduates entered as freshmen (51%), 44% entered as transfer students, and 5% entered as non-degree students.

By college, LA&S and Commerce have, since at least 1995/96, accounted for more than half of all bachelor's degrees awarded, from 69% in 1995/96, to 62% in 1998/99, back up to 68% in 2005/06.

In 2005/06, 89% of the degree recipients who entered as freshmen were enrolled in all possible non-summer terms, compared to 74% of all degree recipients who entered as transfers.
