Undergraduate and Graduate Degrees Awarded by DePaul

The number of degrees awarded by DePaul has grown dramatically from 1995 to 2005—by a total of 63% for undergraduate degrees and 42% for graduate degrees.

At the undergraduate level, LA&S awarded 35% of the degrees in 1995 and 36% in 2005. CTI had the largest gain in the share of degrees, increasing from 4% of all undergraduate degrees in 1995 to 13% in 2005. From 1995 to 2005 seven of the eight undergraduate colleges saw an increase in degrees awarded; Music was the only exception.

At the graduate level, CTI's share of all degrees awarded at DePaul increased from 9% to 23% from 1995 to 2005, and Education's share increased from 6% to 14%. The share of degrees awarded by KGSB dropped from 52% to 32%.

Five of the eight graduate and professional colleges saw an increase in the number of degrees awarded; KGSB, Law and Theatre were the exceptions.
