UIUC is Top Feeder for DePaul Master's Degree Recipients

About 4% of 2006/07 DePaul master's degree recipients received their undergraduate degrees from DePaul, or 97 graduates. The University of Illinois-Urbana (UIUC) was the top feeder school, accounting for 7% of students who received master's degrees this past year, or 162 students.

Although the list of top feeders by college varied across DePaul's four largest colleges, UIUC was the first feeder school for KGSB, Education and LA&S. For CTI, the largest feeder school was University of Illinois-Chicago (UIC).

For each of DePaul's colleges, the top feeder school accounted for about 7% of the total graduates receiving master's degrees in 2006/07.

The number of DePaul master's degree recipients has increased 76.8% over the past 10 years, from 1,312 to 2,319 in 2006/07. Almost 80% of this increase in degrees awarded occurred between 1997/98 and 2002/03.

Of the 2,319 master's degrees awarded in 2006/07: KGSB awarded 31%; CTI, Education and LA&S each awarded about 20% (23%, 22% and 20% respectively); and a total of about 5% were awarded by SNL, Music and Theatre combined.
